

MUST KNOWS FOR KALISPELL GROUPS

KALISPELL, MONTANA
THE NATURAL PLACE TO GATHER

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

(32 miles from Kalispell)

1 million acres of jaw-dropping scenery, the famous Going-to-the-Sun-Road, guided activities, lakes, rivers, waterfalls and snow-capped mountains.

FLATHEAD LAKE

(10 miles from Kalispell)

The largest freshwater lake in the West, more than 200 square miles of water and 185 miles of shoreline.

STATE PARKS

Six Montana state parks on Flathead Lake that provide year-round access to beaches, boat launches and campsites.

LONGVIEW LAVENDER FARM

(10 miles from Kalispell)

With over 8,000 plants, get lost in the fragrant fields of Longview Lavender Farm. Set against the majestic Rocky Mountains: u-pick lavender, a farm shop with an array of lavender products, live plants and countless photo opportunities are available.

DOWNTOWN KALISPELL

A charming culmination of history and style. You will find everything from Made-In-Montana specialty stores to outdoor adventure offerings and boutiques to Western shops. Get a true Montana taste in our restaurants, breweries, wineries and coffee shops.

HUNGRY HORSE DAM

(27 miles from Kalispell)

Located on the South Fork of the Flathead River, sitting at 564 feet high, the dam is one of the largest concrete arch dams in the country and its spillway is the highest in the world.

BISON RANGE

(83 miles from Kalispell)

A wildlife reserve in the center of the Flathead Indian Reservation, with ongoing ties to the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. Consists of 18,766 acres with free range bison, elk, deer and bear.

INDIAN RESERVATIONS

Two Indian reservations a short drive from Kalispell are the Blackfeet Nation and the Flathead Indian reservation. Get to know Montana's First Nations.
